5. Copyright and Access

The annual subscription fee includes a printed issue sent by mail or as an ePaper to the subscriber's email address.

Annual subscription printed or as an ePaper:	€260
Subscription for students:	€130
Single issue printed or as an ePaper:	€45
Subscription for members*:	€49
Individual scientific articles:	€15 each

* The preferential subscription for €49 is only available for members of the VDI and the Gesundheitstechnische Gesellschaft (GG) (Technical Health Association).

The respective subscription fees include the price for the magazine including shipping costs. For delivery to EU states the prices include VAT, for other foreign markets they are considered net prices. Students are granted a 50% discount upon proof of a current certificate of enrolment. The subscription fee is payable within 14 days of receipt of invoice. For new orders the valid subscription prices at the time of the order entry applies. Subscriptions to magazines are valid for an unlimited period and can be terminated by written notice within 8 weeks at the end of the calendar year. The subscription fees are invoiced in advance or deducted from the bank account when payment is made by direct debit.

The magazine including all of the articles and images are copyright protected. With the exception of cases permitted by the law, utilization without prior publisher's consent is punishable by law. Only contributions that have never been published in the same form are accepted for the original part. Exceptions require prior approval. No liability is assumed for unsolicited manuscripts. Authors bear the scientific responsibility for the content of the articles.
